Improvement Scheme (LIS) Capital Fund

There will be two information sessions on the 10th and 11th January 2019 about the Nottinghamshire County Council Local Improvement Scheme (LIS) Capital Fund which will be taking place in the North and South of the county.

You can find out more about the LIS Capital Fund at <https://www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/council-and-democracy/finance-and-budget/local-improvement-scheme/capital-fund>

These sessions are open to heritage and tourism groups, including those who may be considering a response to the 400th anniversary of the sailing of the Mayflower to the United States. Nottinghamshire has a close association to this historic event. Therefore, applications for capital projects that commemorate this significant anniversary and that help to promote community engagement are particularly welcome.

Eligible organisations can apply for one-off capital grants, ranging from a minimum of £1,000 up to a maximum of £50,000.

To book a place at the event in the North of the County on 10th January 2019 go to:

Nottingham Industrial Museum

The museum is looking to build partnerships with other local community based Clubs and Societies.

If you do not know the Museum, it is located in Wolaton Park and has a wide variety of Historical Artefacts, relating to lace making, transport, and historic engines, including the Basford Beam Engine from 1858. Most of the engines are run on the last weekend of each month.

The museum is interested in co-operating with clubs or societies that could arrange performances, demonstrations or hands-on activities for museum visitors, as well as static displays. The museum could jointly publicise the events and provide you with indoor and/or outdoor space, the hope is that this would raise public awareness of both parties.

The museum would also be interested in hearing from any groups or individuals who would like to carry out research on the exhibits, or help to operate and maintain them.

The museum is currently planning their events Calendar for 2019 and has nothing booked for the 1st weekend of each month, so this would be the ideal time. However, if this is not convenient then the museum can be flexible.

If you are interested, please reply to Peter Griffin in the first instance peter.griffin@nottinghamindustrial-museum.co.uk

Best wishes for a Happy New Year

County Council to explore possibility of buying historic Laxton Estate

Nottinghamshire County Council is weighing up an opportunity to buy the Laxton Village Estate, near Ollerton – the only place in Europe to still operate the medieval traditions of open field farming.

The County Council is leading a project with Nottingham Trent University on a potential bid for the 1,900 acre site with a view to developing its potential as an educational asset, linked to the nearby Brackenhurst Campus which is also operated by the university. The estate is currently owned by the Crown Estate, which it inherited from the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, Fisheries and Food in 1981 with a Parliamentary undertaking to conserve the asset. It comprises of agricultural land, 10 residential properties, 17 farms, a public house, visitor centre and museum buildings. The farmland and associated houses are leased to 14 tenant farmers.

The Crown Estate has indicated it may be willing to sell the estate and is inviting the submission of non-binding expressions of interest by the end of December with a view to exploring developed, competitive bids in the new year.

Members of Nottinghamshire County Council's Policy Committee agreed to submit a formal expression of interest at its meeting today (Wednesday 19 December 2018). Councillor Kay Cutts MBE, Leader of Nottinghamshire County Council and Chairman of the Policy Committee, said: "The Laxton Estate is a unique heritage asset in Nottinghamshire of national and international significance The Annual Court Leet held each November in the village, with its complicated system of fines for infringing good practice, demonstrates an early form of local democracy

Vice-Chancellor of Nottingham Trent University, Professor Edward Peck, said: "While discussions are in the early stages, we are keen to work with Nottinghamshire County Council to help find a viable future for the estate and to help preserve and protect the last remaining medieval farming system of its kind."
