

Exhibition at Weston Gallery: Romantic Facts and Fantasies

Culture and Heritage of the romantic Age, c. 1780-1840: Fri 10 May - Sun 25 Aug: FREE

This exhibition, jointly curated by the School of English and Manuscripts and Special Collections, explores sixty years of turbulence and innovation that laid the foundations of our modern world. The East Midlands is one of the heartlands of British Romanticism: Nottinghamshire was briefly home to one of its leading lights, the poet and celebrity Lord Byron; and Derbyshire still bears traces of the industrial landscape created by visionary engineers such as Richard Arkwright. Exhibits on display include images, documents and artefacts chronicling the landscape of the Romantic East Midlands, as well as pieces relating to Byron's life at Newstead Abbey, including a 1st edition of his supernatural drama, Manfred (1817). Romantic-period preoccupations with imagining and anatomising the natural world are reflected in William Blake's engravings for The Botanic Garden and in the image of a flea found in The Wonders of the Microscope: or, An Explanation of the Wisdom of the Creator (1811).

Open Tuesday-Friday, 11am-4pm
Saturday & Sunday, 12noon-4pm
Closed on Mondays

News and Events

We are happy to publish any news or events, from individuals or groups, regardless of whether or not they are NLHA members, as long as the topic relates to Nottinghamshire local history. Please send material by email to: chairman@nlha.org.uk

You can still access the news and events on our webpage at: nlha.org.uk

I am happy to post news and events to the webpage at any time but if you want them to appear in the newsletter than I need to have them by the last week-end of the previous month.
