

East Midlands Historic Environment Research Framework

An Interactive Digital Resource

New Frameworks for Our Past:

Advancing research on the historic environment of the East Midlands

Saturday 5th October 2019

Teaching and Learning Building, University of Nottingham
University Park, Nottingham, NG7 2RD

This conference will consider how recent work has advanced the East Midlands Historic Environment Research Framework¹ and the Derwent Valley Mills World Heritage Site Research Framework² with which it is closely linked. It will focus upon investigations that have enhanced understanding of the Neolithic and later periods, and will include demonstrations of the online Research Framework and displays of recent East Midlands projects.

From 9.00 am Registration; tea, coffee and biscuits

10.00 am Welcome and introduction. David Knight (Trent & Peak Archaeology)

10.05 am Developing the new online Research Framework for the East Midlands. David Knight and Dan Miles (Historic England)

10.30 am Illuminating industrial housing: investigating workers' homes in the Derwent Valley Mills World Heritage Site. Suzanne Lilley (North York Moors National Park)

10.55 am Investigating the operation of the 18th century cotton mills at Papplewick, Nottinghamshire. Stephen Walker (Friends of Moor Pond Wood)

11.20 am What are we looking for? Thoughts on historic building research arising from investigations at Canons Ashby in Northamptonshire. Jim Brown (MOLA)

11.45 pm The lost medieval chapel of St Morrell: a possible pilgrims' chapel and cemetery near Hallaton. Vicki Score (University of Leicester Archaeological Services) and Hazel Wallace (Hallaton Field Work Group)

12.10 pm Lunch

1.30 pm Exploring medieval Nottingham: excavating the Castle and revisiting the early medieval Borough. Gareth Davies (Trent & Peak Archaeology)

1.55 pm Rediscovering Viking-Age stone sculpture of the East Midlands. Paul Everson (Universities of Keele and Wales) and David Stocker (University of Leeds)

2.20 pm The Lincolnshire Extensive Urban Survey: characterising historic towns. Ian George and Nicola Grayson (Lincolnshire County Council)

2.45 pm Recent work in Roman Leicester: the most investigated town outside London. Nick Cooper (University of Leicester Archaeological Services)

3.10 pm Tea, coffee and biscuits

3.40 pm Something old, something new, something shared: revealing the Roman, Iron Age and Bronze Age landscapes of Pineham, Northamptonshire. Rob Atkins and Tracy Preece (MOLA)

4.05 pm New work on Neolithic long barrows: the Lincolnshire Long Barrows Assessment Project. Denise Drury (Heritage Lincolnshire)

4.30 pm Of fire, ice and people: Peak District lead production, human health and its environmental impact. Chris Loveluck (University of Nottingham)

4.55 pm Final remarks

5.00 pm Close

¹ <https://researchframeworks.org/emherf/>

² www.derwentvalleymills.org/derwent-valley-mills-history/derwent-valley-mills-research-framework/

East Midlands Historic Environment Research Framework

An Interactive Digital Resource

New Frameworks for Our Past: Booking Form

Bookings for this conference close on Friday 27th September 2019. There are two ways to book.

- Follow our Eventbrite link: to book online, go to <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/east-midlands-research-framework-new-frameworks-for-our-past-tickets-61689298352>
- By cheque: send your cheque (payable to CBA East Midlands) and this booking form to David Ingham, 21 Oak Tree Drive, Bedale, North Yorkshire, DLB 1UL. Confirmation of booking will be supplied via email or SAE.

Please reserve place(s) at the standard rate of £20

Please reserve place(s) at the student rate of £10

Enclosed is a cheque for £..... payable to CBA East Midlands

Prices include lunch and refreshments. Please indicate the number of lunches required:

Standard Vegetarian Gluten-free Dietary requirements (allergies/ intolerances).....

Car parking: free parking on the University Park campus at weekends (see campus map for car parks: <https://www.nottingham.ac.uk/sharedresources/documents/mapuniversitypark.pdf>).

Public transport: frequent bus and tram links from city centre; for those travelling by train, trams run regularly from Nottingham Station to the University of Nottingham tram stop (outside South Entrance). For travel information, visit <https://www.nottingham.ac.uk/about/visitorinformation/mapsanddirections/mapsanddirections.aspx>

Conference venue: the Teaching and Learning Building is located adjacent to the Hallward Library in the centre of the campus (Building 62 on the map of the University Park campus).

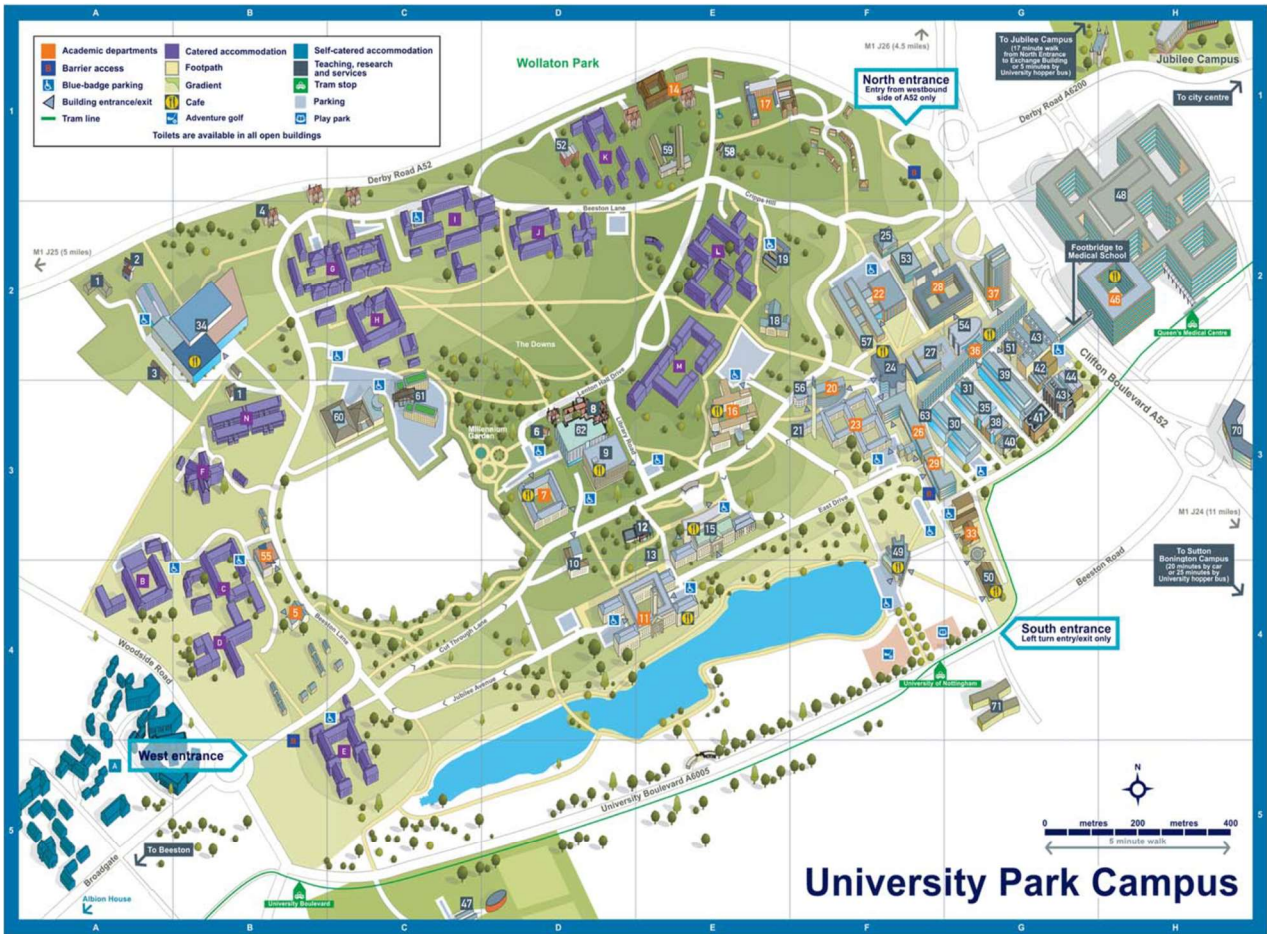

.....
PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY BELOW IN BLOCK CAPITALS

Name(s):.....

Address:.....
.....

Telephone and email:.....

Any queries should be addressed to the EMHERF team: emherf@yorkat.co.uk (0115 8967400)

University of Nottingham
UK | CHINA | MALAYSIA

Building 62: Teaching and Learning Building